

---

O O O O O O

---

To the Class of 1912:

Never before in the history of our country has there been so great a need for men and women with a broad and clear vision as to the needs and opportunities of farming and country life. I know the training that you have had, will be helpful to you and that you will be powers for good wherever you may cast your lot.

Sincerely yours,

A. F. Woods,

---

O O O O O O

---