Junior Class

Upper row: Anderson, Dunton, Billings, Mills, Huot, Osterloh, Walker, Monson, Hanson, Strandness, Nyquist, Hagen.
 Middle row: Jenkins, Wilson, Grothe, Pederson, Harris, Osterloh, Lovas, Clementson, Samuelson, Lindberg Billings.
 Lower row: Jones, Cannon, Lutness, Scholin, Grandy, Floan, Hest, Rud, Brunnell.

We're the intermediate of three classes.
 We have twenty-four boys and eight lasses.
 With Mr. and Mrs. Bengtson as guides,
 We cannot go wrong, whate'er betides.

Conrad is the president of our class.
 If he weren't bashful, he might have a lass.

We have a member whose name is John Hest,
 In studies, surely he's one of the best.

A very bright girl is our Selma Nyquist,
 Name all her good deeds, you'll have a long list.

Of his singing abilities Oscar Lovas is proud,
 His voice carries well, is not screechy or loud.

Carl Lindberg is one of our musical boys,
 In playing his clarinet, every one he annoys.

Wilson is one of our fine Junior boys,
 You'll never find him playing with toys.
