

Saturday, Decemebr 12.

A game between the "All Stars" of Crookston and the "Aggies" was played, resulting in a bad outlook for the "Stars." Score was Stars, 8; Aggie, 37.

A game followed between the Juniors and Seniors. This was a very interesting game but, of course, the Seniors won. Saugstad lost his wind once, but finally fount it in a corner of the gym.

Sunday, December 13.

Vacation must be close at hand from the way the fellows are sending home for money and telling hard luck stories.

Mr. Clementson, Jr., gave a fine talk at Senior Hall today.

Monday, December 14.

The Debating Club program was postponed until after Christmas.

Tuesday, December 15.

Dr. F. H. Koch, of Grand Forks, read Dickens' "Christmas Carol" at the school auditorium this evening.

Wednesday, December 16.

Exams! Exams!! Exams!!!

Friday, December 18.

Last day of school. Everybody is in a hurry to go.

1915

Thursday, January 7.

School opened today. A few Seniors have arrived.

Friday, January 8.

The grounds look a little greener since the new term opened up. Why?

A game between the Model High, University of North Dakota, Grand Forks, and the Aggies was played here, resulting in a score—Model High, 16; Aggies, 28. Movies followed the game.

Sunday, January 10.

A number of Seniors and Freshmen went skating in town and reported that the ice was quite hard.

Monday, January 11.

There was no program given this evening.

Tuesday, January 12.

First band practice this year. Band will play for Saturday evening game.

The Freshies had a class meeting in the Agronomy room of the Hill Building. Just about the time they were going to nominate a "Prexy" the lights seemed to lose their illuminating properties, and the Freshies were lost in utter darkness which caused a great commotion and a panic.

The Sergeant-at-Arms rushed out and restored the lights and then escorted Mr. C. Hagen into the room. They extorted from him the secret of the real way to vote.

Mr. P. Ness and N. Jones were going to start a vaudeville, but called it off.

Wednesday, January 13.

A large attendance at chapel today.