

JUNIOR MOVIES—REEL ONE.
Reel Two will follow immediately.

Junior Social Events

The Junior Class was invited to attend a party given to them by Mr. and Mrs. McCall, the class advisers, on the evening of January eleventh at Senior Hall. After playing games, talking, and telling stories for a couple of hours, delicious refreshments were served. When thinking of the pleasant time we had been having when walking home, we were glad that we were members of the Junior Class.

Bright Sayings of Juniors

- "Oh, Gee, Kid."—Helen Sontag.
- Alma, where are you?—Blanche Morrison.
- I couldn't get Starr up at all—Ross Corell.
- I haven't anything to do.—Esther Pearson.
- James, have you heard from Rose?—Andrew Landby.
- Ella, any mail for me?—Lillian Mueller.
- Wait for me.—Nellie Jenkins.
- Oh, Crimany, this isn't right.—Chloe Starr.
- Ya, sure.—Peggy Kendley.
- We didn't get up until fifteen minutes after the bell rang.—Jennie Boisner.
- I skol tank so, too.—Ole Flaata.
- Oh! here you are.—Alma Nettum.
- Hey! Starr, make Ross let your old lady alone.—Lester Garceau.