The Young People's Christian Association was re-organized March 22, 1914, as the Y. M. C. A. The purpose of this association is to develop character and to create a more intensive interest in religious activities, thus influencing every young man to lead a better and more useful life.

The Sunday program consists of Sunday School in the morning at eight-thirty, and in the afternoon at three o'clock a speaker addresses the members of the Y. M. C. A. Different members of the faculty have spoken to them, and also various business men of Crookston. In the evening, at seven o'clock, a joint meeting of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. is held. Alternate Sundays the meetings are conducted by various students of the two organizations, and alternate Sundays the students are addressed by outside speakers either from Crookston or elsewhere.
