

Dedicated

To George E. Vincent, the president of our University, whose words and personality have been an inspiration to us and whose departure we greatly regret;

and

To Dean A. F. Woods, under whose management the agriculture of Minnesota is coming into its own and whose work of promoting rural progress we thoroughly appreciate.