

CLASS PROPHECY

Walter Sheridan has achieved success as a market gardener. Among his intimate friends are Mr. Stork, Mr. Boost-the-Prices, and other high officials.

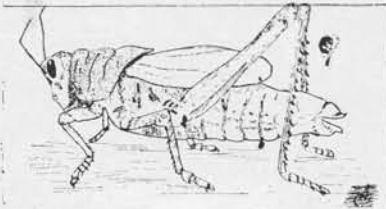

Herbert Anderson has become a noted stockman. He puts all his up-to-date ideas into effect with unheard-of results. He pays special attention to milking Shorthorns and sheep.

Birger Hagglund is now a noted tamer and trainer of wild animals. His success as a hunter is spoken of in every land.

Martin Soberg owns the best bred herd of Jersey cattle in the world. Men from afar and near are eager to copy his ideas, as we were eager to copy them at the A. C. years ago.

Rasmus Heiberg, state entomologist, of Minnesota, is a great student of nature. He has lately discovered musical insects.

Maja Petersen does good work as a social reform worker. Her favorite topic in lecturing is "Outdoor Life for Women."

Raymond Anderson found after a trial that it is not good for man to be alone, for he had much trouble with his housework. He is now a well-to-do farmer and has a good housekeeper.

James Porten is a well-known horse breeder and trainer. His strain of horses are used by all the great men of the country.
