

CLASS PROPHECY

Oscar Tunheim is a globe trotter. He has visited every nook and corner of the world, and will now start out again.

Florence Haenke loves the country. She is a wonderful cook. Her favorite dish is mutton chops.

Peter Ness lives all alone in a log cabin he calls his own.

Albert Bjorsness has been promoted to the position of patient husband. He must often help with the housework, but he grins and bears it.

The dearest spot on earth to King Scherfenberg is home, sweet home.

Nellie Anderson is a model housekeeper. She does not allow cats and dogs in the house, nor humans with muddy feet.

Charles Auburg's highest aims in life are comfort and peace of mind. He seeks these blessings at his camp in the mountains.

Johanna Monson teaches art, penmanship, and children. She is loved by her pupils and everyone else.
