Young Men's Christian Association

Near the beginning of the first term the two Christian Associations gave a reception to the new students. On such occasions they are given a better opportunity to get acquainted, a balm for homesickness, and an aid to good fellowship.

On Sunday morning the boys of the Y. M. C. A. conduct a Bible class under the able leadership of the Y. M. C. A. advisers, Messrs. McCall, Bengtson, and Larson. At the Tuesday evening meetings the boys take up the study of "The Challenge of the Country," by Fiske. This book points out the opportunities for social service in the country and how best to avail one's self of these opportunities. The discussions are interesting and helpful. These meetings, as well as the joint meetings held on Sunday evenings with the Y. W. C. A., are led by students. Outside speakers are provided twice a month. At the other meetings, faculty members and students take part. The talks given this year, enhanced by the splendid singing, have been instructive and inspirational and have served to elevate and strengthen ideals that will guide along the paths of right living.

The Association has 107 members.

At the state Y. M. C. A. held at Duluth, February 9-11, the Association of this school was represented by Palmer Ericson, Newell Lee, and Guy Spokely.
