

DAY BY DAY

---

October

2. Monday—Trunks, students and suitcases begin to arrive in the evening.

3. Opening Day—Registrar and assistants very busy. In the afternoon a meeting is held in the auditorium for the assignment of lessons.

4. Classes begin.

5. First meeting of boys' glee club. Miss Holliday hopes to make songsters out of the boys.

6. Football try-out in full blast. Boys very enthusiastic.

7. Some classes postponed until next week to enable us to see the football game between the high schools of Crookston and Grand Forks.

8. Sunday—peace reigns over campus.

9. Seniors and a few others were busy as could be all day decorating the dining hall under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Sewall, preparatory to a banquet to be given in the evening by the Crookston Commercial Club to the members of the Red River Valley Development Association and new friends. About 200 men gathered about the festive board, and were served by 20 of the boys and girls of our school. The two problems under discussion at the banquet were drainage and weed eradication.

10. First scrimmage with Crookston. Score 16 to 12 in favor of Crookston High.—Not so bad.

11. A lot of "stiffs" around school this morning, but the word "football" explains the situation.

12. Football practice. The team is beginning to show fairly good form.

13. The girls clamoring to organize a football team.

14. The Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. give a party for the Freshmen. Football team in Moorhead. Game very one-sided. "Aggies" badly beaten.

15. Mr. McCall addresses Y. M. C. A. on "Christian Citizenship."

16. Mr. McCall takes beekeeping class out on an excursion. Nobody "stung."

17. Rub-down is the liquid needed in Senior Hall—not that the fellows are obstreperous but they "play ball."

18. Scrimmage with Crookston. Game tie.

19. First meeting of girls' glee club.

20. Hard signal practice. Team improves steadily.

21. Nothing exciting all day (except classes). Band practice at 6:30 followed by games in the "gym." Fine time.

22. Shorty and a friend try to wear out the railroad track or count the ties. Who knows?

23. Senior stock judging class motor to Palmer Farm at Euclid. Seniors give first program of the season.

24. Scrimmage with Crookston. Neither side scores. Oscar Tunheim sustains a very painful injury to his right knee.

Football game between "Aggies" and Red Lake Falls. Score: Red Lake, 38; "Aggies,"

6. Walter Sheridan breaks ankle during first five minutes of game. Peter Ness gets knee injured.

26. No football practice. Team all "bunded" up. Nurse very busy.

27. Ghost party is given in the D. S. by the women of the faculty.

Mrs. Haig: "Hughes for president! Such a silly idea."

28. Colt show. Parade by A. C. Count Tabarillo, sausage machine and Ragamuffin band the leading attractions.
