

DAY BY DAY

29. A. E. Enerson and Walter Peterson put Ford to good use. Ask Hilda and Helen.

30. Meeting of both debating clubs and of Home Economics Club.

31. A very appropriate Hallowe'en party was given in the "gym" for the students. A very "ghostly" time was reported by all.

November

1. We had the honor of a visit from Gov. Burnquist. He spoke in the auditorium on the work of the Y. M. C. A. in the prison camps of Europe.

2. Scrimmage with Crookston. We won. Score 24 to 28.

3. Mr. Bahner gives team first blackboard talk.

4. "Aggies" go down in defeat to Stephen. Score 38 to 6.

5. "Frenchy" recovers his white sweater. It has been around the barns. (Barnes).

6. Mr. Nye has picture taken. Oh, what luck. Mr. Bahner gives his "huskies" another blackboard practice.

7. Presidential election. A number of students go to vote for either their first or twentieth time.

8. Election returns are being told by all and everybody thinks the other fellow should feel the same as he.

9. Hard scrimmage with C. H. S. tonight.

10. More football. Weather very fine, and we hate to close season with next game which is only a few days off.

11. King temporarily cheers "Shorty" up. "You know my doctrine, 'Shorty,' there are lots of others."

12. Ferris, Staska and Miss Ferris attempt to climb campus light with a Ford. Campus light fractured. Miss Ferris slightly injured.

13. Crookston-"Aggie" football game. "Aggies" win 25 to 7. George is yellmaster for the jubilant "Aggie" roosters.

14. Oscar and Ras decide to study a little occasionally.

15. Mr. Larson compiles standings of students. It takes a Chinaman to find any A's.

16. Palmer decides to take music lessons.

17. Band practice.

18. Miss Holliday teels blue. Helen Schmidt, Helen Sontag, and Frank Buckley, former students, visit school.

19. Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Sewall, Miss Holliday, and Miss Glise auto to Thief River Falls and enjoy a visit with "Paul and Olive" in their beautiful new home.

20. Advanced class program. The farce "Obstinacy" is given. "Freshies" enjoy the "Advanced Argosy."

21. (Our historian omits this day. Let us hope that future historians and archaeologists will be able to ferret out the facts.)—Editor.

22. English classes work overtime preparing for visiting teachers.

23. Selma and Sophie visit school. Dr. Hodgson removes cast from Walter's ankle. First lessons in walking.

24. Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Selvig arrived home from Washington, where they have attended a conference of superintendents of colleges and experiment stations.

25. Teachers and other members of the N. W. T. A. visit our school. Boys' Glee Club and Junior boys sing at convention. Ex-Governor Hanley of Indiana speaks.

26. Ex-Senator Saugstad addresses a joint meeting of the Christian Associations.

27. A couple of Seniors take music lessons while walking to town.

28. Dietary sheets begun. Very interesting.

29. Meeting of Senior class. Directions for the coming day given by Miss Maxwell.

30. Thanksgiving Day was spent in the accustomed enjoyable way. The Junior Class decorated the dining room very artistically and appropriately, and the Senior boys acted as waiters at the splendid dinner which was served. A number of out-of-town people were present to enjoy the day here. In the afternoon the pupils in the model school gave an excellent program, and in the evening the farce "Obstinacy" was produced in a very clever manner. Thanksgiving Day is one of the many thoroughly enjoyable days at our school.

December

1. A very slippery school day. A wish bone is broken, and not on account of slippery walks either.

2. Trip to sand pit enjoyed by some.

3. The peace of Robertson Hall disturbed by ghosts.

4. School basket ball team is picked. Meeting of debating societies and Home Economics Club.

5. "Ford" breaks down in first snow of the season.

6. The sun rose in the morning and set at night.

7. A heavy snow storm.
