

DAY BY DAY

8. Mr. Kennard almost exterminates the Senior boys with gas in the "lab."

9. The "Bob" tried out by a trip to town.

10. Supt. Sanberg of Crookston addresses a joint meeting of the Christian Associations.

11. "Freshie" program unusually good.

12. First final examination for the semester.

13. First team has practice game. Junior basket ball try-out.

14. Senior basket ball try-out.

15. "Shorty" drops below grade.

16. "Finals" are becoming more numerous; cramming more in evidence. "Aggies," 37; East Grand Forks, 15; hopes soaring. Senior Hall fire proves too attractive for some.

17. Last Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. joint meeting before Christmas.

18. Senior program in auditorium.

19. Toboggan slide is started.

20. "Exams" coming hard and fast.

21. "Exams" are over. Sighs of relief and sighs of despair. Mr. and Mrs. Larson entertain the boys of Senior Hall.

22. Last day of semester; many have left and school takes on a lonely aspect. Games played in the gymnasium.

23. Nobody home.

13. A most enjoyable evening. Prof. I. M. Cochran gives a reading, "The Fortune Hunter"; movies afterward.

14. The Rev. Roseland addresses students in the evening. Miss Holliday favors Senior Hall with a visit. The boys "sing to beat the band."

15. Meeting of "Aggie Board."

16. Girls basket ball team developing rapidly.

17. First team practice hard.

18. Sheridan sick and trying to learn the tune of the Swan Song.

19. Work on the cantata begins in earnest.

20. Thief River Falls defeats "Aggies" in basket ball. Hopes dashed. Sighs. Sighs. Sighs.

21. Large number of the students see the film "Civilization" at the Armory. Because of the blizzard many stay down town. Anderson and Spjut celebrated at the "Crookston." "State Ford" runs into snow drift and freezes.

22. Mr. Gravem takes pictures for 1917 "Aggie." Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Sewall entertained the Seniors Monday evening, January 22nd, at the Home Economics Building. Dinner was served at 6:30, after which many delightful games were played and, as always, our

1917

January

8. Everybody returns happy. Mr. Selvig wears a new green tie.

9. Office force nearly perish in a deluge of short course students. "Please keep out of the halls."

10. Things are getting settled.

11. Mr. J. W. Wheeler speaks at chapel.

12. We have a real old-fashioned blizzard.

host and hostess proved themselves splendid entertainers. Juniors meet in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kennard, and the Freshmen meet in the Auditorium. All report an excellent time.

23. Skating rink becomes reality. First water put on. Miss Imsdahl begins "feeding the faculty."

24. Boys in Senior Hall organize for self-government by electing officers.

25. "Aggies" practice for "Falls" game.