

T. M. McCALL

HORTICULTURE

The horticultural department helps to solve some of the hardest problems that face the different home communities of the students. It dispenses helpful information about controlling such pests as weeds and insects. The students learn to identify weeds and weed seeds; insects; and diseases like rusts in grains, and blights in potatoes.

Slogan: "The hoe is as mighty as the sword."