

Dedication

To our superintendent, C. G. Selvig, in commemoration of the tenth anniversary of his coming to the Northwest School of Agriculture and Experiment Station, and in appreciation of his energy, large vision, and untiring effort in developing this institution and promoting the agricultural interests of the whole Red River Valley, we fondly dedicate this book.