

Stock Judging Team

The stock judging team that was to have represented the Northwest School of Agriculture at the Farm Crops show held in Crookston, consisted of two Seniors, Joseph Thorkilson and Clarence Tucker, and one Junior, Martin Anderson.

Unfortunately, the "Flu" broke out at a very inconvenient time and all meetings were cancelled including, of course, the stock judging event.

The opponents were to have come from Morris, St. Anthony Park, Fargo Agricultural College, and Winnipeg.

Great interest was shown in this subject and we are confident that had the judging taken place, these youthful judges would have put the Northwest School of Agriculture at the head.
