

1920
AGGIE

Several songs were sung by the Northwest School Boys' glee club. Each speaker was greeted with a song by the student body. Mr. C. A. Linden sang two solos.

After the banquet the guests assembled in the auditorium for the Memorial exercises. Reverend W. E. Dudley, of Winona, delivered the address for the occasion. The exercises closed with the very impressive ceremony of lowering the Red Cross and Service flags and carrying them to their permanent places in the library, by an escort of service men.

Miss Myrtle Hovland, of Crookston, sang "The Red of the Rose." This song which was composed by a former student, Nels Engen, is a beautiful tribute in honor of our fallen heroes.

A buffet lunch was served at six o'clock.

The first number of the evening's program was the play, "The Passing of the Third Floor Back." The Victory march made a very impressive sight. The vaudeville show that followed proved a great hit. The Darkey Quartette held all enthralled for a few moments. This was followed by the Garland drill and Strong Arm act. This feature of the program was concluded by Charlie Chaplin in "Shoulder Arms."

During the interval of social games, a lunch was served. The crowd was kept in uproar by Judge Soak Em Sambo's Kangaroo Court.

The evening's program was concluded by a shower of confetti on the last group of marchers. The crowd sang the old familiar songs with a spirit that indicated that all had had a good time.

A feature of the program was the sixteen page souvenir containing greetings from noted men, the Honor Roll program of the day, and a splendid tribute written by Martin Rud, of the class of '20, which won first place in the tribute contest.

