

Society News

Oct. 11

The Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. gave a reception in honor of the new students. "Heart of Humanity" was shown first, after which a delicious lunch was served, and all went to the gymnasium where the program committee had planned some very clever ways of getting acquainted.

Oct. 18

The out-door party was enjoyed by everyone. A huge bonfire was the main feature. The Indian pow-wow, the slide for life by Mr. Larson and the sack fight between Mr. Gousseff and Mr. Bengtson were very exciting. The majority of the numerous contests was won by the Juniors.

Nov. 1

On Hallowe'en night, the colors of the different costumes made the gym look very artistic. The ghostly ghost walk, the games, and the eats were so thoroughly enjoyed that even the most mischievous forgot their Hallowe'en tricks.

Nov. 15

A progressive party was something new. The folks were divided into three groups, each one going respectively to Robertson Hall, Senior Hall and Home Economics Building. A stay of fifteen minutes was allowed at each place, after which the groups changed about. A delightful entertainment was reported by each group.

Nov. 27

The Thanksgiving Banquet was a get-together of all the people on the campus. After the delicious dinner of turkey and numerous other things, we all went to the auditorium where we were splendidly entertained by songs, speeches, a folk dance, and "Hidden Treasures," in which the faculty were shown up in their true light.

Dec. 6

A good time was reported by the different classes at their class parties.