

Daily Happenings

- October 6—Suitcases, trunks, and students begin to appear.
- October 7—Registration.
- October 8—Enrollment the largest in history of school. Foot ball practice begins, Mr. Foker in charge.
- October 9—New students are entertained at Senior and Robertson Halls.
- October 13—Literary societies meet for first time. Agrarian society is organized.
- October 14—Captain Eide speaks at assembly.
- October 15—Morrill Campion pays first visit to Robertson Hall.
- October 16—Musical program at assembly by Miss Pederson, Miss Ball, and Mr. Howe.
- October 18—Annual outdoor festival.
- October 20—First Senior Public Speaking program.* Football team rounding into shape.
- October 21—Lieutenant John McKinnon addresses assembly on "The Aviation Corps." Practice game with Crookston High football team.
- October 23—Miss Maude Hayes speaks at assembly exercises on the work of the Red Cross.
- October 24—First snow of the season. Everybody goes to see Fiske O'Hara in "Down Limerick Way."
- October 25—Miss Vivienne DuSault and Mr. Frank Loew entertain us with a musical program. Movie film in the evening, "A Little Brother of the Rich".
- October 26—Reverend Hibbard addresses the joint meeting of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A.
- October 27—A program dedicated to Theodore Roosevelt given by the Juniors.
- October 28—Major Lucius Miller at assembly tells us his experiences in France.
- October 29—Football practice discontinued on account of snow. Physical examinations. Senior girls' hearing slightly defective.
- October 30—Mr. Coffin, of State Y. M. C. A., and Herbert Anderson talk to students at assembly exercises. Concert by Sousa's Band in Armory.
- October 31—Miss Wood encourages students to work for the establishment of county libraries. Freshmen boys reminiscing former Hallowe'en days.
- November 1—Miss Hedde favors us with a number of readings at Chapel. Hallowe'en party in evening. Movie film, "Mother O' Mine". Ole Negaard wins pie eating contest.
- November 2—Theodore Peterson visits school. Herbert Anderson gives talk on Y. M. C. A. war work.
- November 4—Junior program. Subject, "Perseverance."
- November 5—Morrill Campion spends evening at Robertson Hall.
- November 7—Basketball schedule is arranged. Mr. Smith appointed Coach.
- November 8—Mrs. Gavin gives musical program at assembly. Moving picture, Marguerite Clark in "Snow White."
- November 9—Reverend Shawl delivers address on "Idolatry."
- November 10—Real old fashioned blizzard.
- November 11—Armistice Day. Juniors debate, Country vs. City Life. No school in the afternoon.
- November 12—First appearance of Freshmen on Public Speaking program.
- November 13—Seniors feeling their responsibilities select the topic, "Manhood", for their program.
- November 14—Major Charles Loring of Crookston addresses the students on "American Citizenship."
- November 15—Mr. Geise, of the Crookston High School, gives fine talk on "Service." Evening, film—"Destiny." Three cornered amusement afterward.
- November 16—Mr. Smith talks on "Cooperation," at assembly.
- November 18—Superintendent Selvig explains a few of the issues regarding the Peace Treaty.