

1920
AGGIE

- November 19—Miss Jones, Secretary of the national Y. W. C. A., discusses the work that is being done in Americanization for the foreign born.
- November 20—Freshmen girls recite "Michael," Campion visits Robertson Hall.
- November 21—Everyone in a high state of suspense, but discovers the marks are not in the boxes.
- November 22—No marks. Miss Helen Larson of Crookston gives a number of readings in chapel. Movie, "Son of Democracy." Practice basketball game.
- November 23—Reverend Kuyper addresses students.
- November 24—Freshmen render fine program.
- November 25—Seniors take an examination at 6:30. Dr. Fritz Osten-Sacken and company entertain at chapel.
- November 26—Kenneth Monson buys up all the pies in Crookston.
- November 27—Thanksgiving Day celebration—Turkey an' everything.
- November 28—The casualty list—one Freshman sick; one Senior falls asleep in class.
- November 29—Sleighride postponed. Movie "Hulda from Holland," followed by original stunts.
- November 30—"Faith and Work" constitutes Reverend Moen's theme for his evening address. Senior quartette makes its first appearance.
- December 1—Norman Friday and crew flood skating rink.
- December 2—Mr. Smith gives a very inspirational talk on "The Superman." Seniors unable to qualify.
- December 3—Work on the skating rink continues. Junior boys take short road to English and are caught by Miss Burns.
- December 4—Preparation for the Song Contest begins.
- December 5—The Freshmen boys devote chapel period to "Character Building."
- December 6—Attorney Youngquist of Crookston talks to students on "Americanization."
- December 6—Moving pictures—"Scenes in New England", "Son of Democracy," and "The Sign of the Cross." Class parties following movies.
- December 7—Joint meeting of Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. Mr. G. H. Sanberg speaks on the topic of "The Sterner Side of Christ." Mrs. Bond sings a solo.
- December 9—Mr. Bengtson gives illustrated lecture on "The Care of the Teeth."
- December 10—"What Constitutes an Education," is the subject of an address given by H. J. McGuire. Boys' Glee Club sings at Dairymen's convention.
- December 11—Honorable W. I. Nolan gives an inspiring address at chapel.
- December 13—Aggies trim McIntosh 31 to 15. Rud injured. Movies, Jack Pickford in "Seventeen."
- December 14—Martin Rud walking with the aid of crutches. "Who Am I", Mr. Bengtson asks at the joint meeting of the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A.
- December 17—Miss Rockwood reads "The Other Wise Man" at assembly.
- December 18—Song contest brings victory for the Seniors. Freshmen are good losers.
- December 19—Home Coming Day. 'Nuff sed!
- December 20—Home, Sweet Home, and a Merry Christmas!
- 1920
- January 5—Students flock back to school.
- January 6—Enrollment too large for rooming facilities.
- January 7—Home Management Club prepares their own meals.
- January 8—Morrill Campion calls at Robertson Hall again!!
- January 9—"New Year thoughts and reflections of the Old Year," given by Juniors at assembly.
- January 10—Mayor Grady of Crookston speaks at chapel. Basketball game—Stephen 39, Aggies 12. Movie, "Passing of the Third Floor Back."
- January 11—A. A. Miller of Crookston addresses joint meeting of Y. W. and Y. M. C. A.