

1920
AGGIE

- January 12—Try-out for the debating team.
- January 13—Mr. Murphy, of Crookston speaks in chapel and maintains that "Smiles" are necessary in daily life.
- January 14—Glee Clubs in preparation for Farm Crops Show.
- January 15—"Bill Busy" is read by Mr. Bengtson at assembly.
- January 17—Mrs. J. L. Gavin, Miss Wind, and Mr. Howe give us a splendid musical program during assembly period. Basketball—Warren 18, Aggies, 19. Basketball—Freshmen 25, Juniors 9. Movies, "Rough Stuff", "Son of Democracy", and Douglas Fairbanks in "Headin' South."
- January 18—"How Democracy has changed the Conception of God," is the theme of Mr. Smith's address to a joint meeting of the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A.
- January 20—A. J. Kittleson discusses Boys' and Girls' Club Work in chapel.
- January 22—Kipling program given by the Junior Class.
- January 23—Leap Year party at Armory.
- January 24—Superintendent Sanberg of Crookston delivers an address on "Education," at assembly. Basketball—East Grand Forks 13, Aggies 51. Basketball—Junior girls 8, Senior girls 12.
- January 25—J. C. Sathre, of Crookston, speaks at joint meeting of Y. W. and Y. M. C. A.
- January 26—Group pictures for Annual are taken.
- January 27—Mr. Carlson of Erskine gives a few suggestions to the young men on how to be successful in life.
- January 28—"Flu" epidemic pays us a visit.
- January 30—Morrill Campion drops in at Robertson Hall.
- January 31—Aggies go to Fosston. School closes—"Flu". Stephens Hall parlor converted into a "Flu" ward.
- February 1—Only fifty-five "Flu" cases. Basketball team returns from Fosston. The score? Ask Fosston—!
- February 9 to 13—Farm Crops Show.
- February 14—School opens. Very low attendance due to blizzard.
- February 15—Students returning.
- February 17—Educational film shown at assembly.
- February 18—Walter Sprung falls asleep in Farm Management class.
- February 19—Educational film at assembly.
- February 20—Carl Narveson gives first Senior thesis in chapel. Subject—"The Why and the How of Farm Accounts."
- February 21—Soldiers and Sailors Memorial discussed in chapel.
- February 22—Reverend L. V. Stiles delivers address on "Enthusiasm." Campion thinks it is too stormy to visit Robertson Hall.
- February 24—Ella Tollefson gives Senior thesis in chapel—"The Value of Music to the Community." Leonard Wiberg presents his thesis, "Strawberry Culture."
- February 25—Thesis: "The Raising of Sugar Beets", Joseph Thorkilson; "Orchards in Northern Minnesota," Willard Tunheim.
- February 26—Presidential candidates — Freshmen.
- February 27—Heroism in Every Day Life—Freshman Program.
- February 28—Thesis: "Care and Management of a Typical Red River Valley Farm," Milton Warner. "Flowers in The Home" Ellen Ahlm. Basketball game: Freshmen 28, Seniors 20. Crookston High School 15, Aggies 31. Movies Jack Pickford in "A Burglar by Proxy"
- February 29—Rev. Schuett's theme for the evening was "Consecration."
- March 1—Junior-Senior banquet.
- March 2—Seniors enjoy reserved tables.
- March 3—Basket ball game: Fisher 18, Aggies 26. Public Speaking Program by the Freshmen.
- March 5—Senior Thesis: "Alfalfa Growing in the Red River Valley," Joseph Brunell. "Improvement of Corn by Selection and Breeding," John Flikke.