

1920
AGGIE

- March 6—Thesis: "History of Duroc Jerseys in the Red River Valley," Melvin Bengtson. "Development of Holsteins in the Red River Valley," Walter Sprung. Basketball game: Freshmen 17, Juniors 11. Aggies 14, Moorhead 31. Freshmen girls 7, Senior girls 6. Movie: Charles Ray in "The Busher."
- March 7—E. A. Mills addresses the joint meeting of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A.
- March 8—Senior Thesis: "Steps in the Development of American Furniture," Ruby Knudson.
- March 9—Thesis: "Household Disinfectants and How to Use Them in the Home," Olga Lovaaas. "Care and Feeding of Poultry on the Farm", Arthur Andresen.
- March 10—Instructors meet with students in regard to Home Project Work.
- March 11—Discussion of Scandinavian writers and composers given by Juniors.
- March 12—Storm passes away. Campion visits Robertson Hall.
- March 13—Spring has "come". Theses: "Clothing Budget," Agnes Gronner. "Stinking Smut in Wheat and Its Control," Clarence Tucker. "The Value of Home Project Work for Girls," Louise Edman. Students go with basketball team to Fisher. Fisher 24, Aggies 14.
- March 14—The last joint meeting of the year is addressed by Rev. J. Kuyper.
- March 16—Blizzard. Thesis: "The Value of Public Speaking to the Community," Laura Jensen.
- March 17—Mr. and Mrs. Foker, Class Advisors for the Seniors, give them a reception.
- March 18—Basketball Game—Crookston 28, Aggies 24.
- March 19—Preliminaries for the Inter-Society Debate.
- March 20—Field meet.
- March 21—Commencement sermon at Armory.
- March 22—Final Inter-Society Debate. Campus Flooded.
- March 23—Mr. and Mrs. Selvig give a reception for the Seniors.
- March 24—Senior Class Day.
- March 25—Commencement Day. Alumni Banquet and Get-Together.
- March 26—Everybody leaves for home.