

SANFORD CLUB

Top Row—Dougherty, Torgerson, Engelbrakken, Carlson, Dunn, Friday.
Bottom Row—Christopherson, Raymond, Anderson, Miss Nolan, Hagen, Everson, Harstad.

Fifteen freshman girls, led by Miss Bernice Nolan, of the Home Economics department, organized a fourth literary society, October 19, 1920, and chose the name of the Sanford Club, in honor of the late Maria Sanford. A special Maria Sanford program was presented before the assembly by five girls, who gave sketches from the life of the distinguished Minnesota woman.
