This is a girls' organization which meets every two weeks to discuss problems relating to rural home conditions and social betterment of the community. During the present year it has been under the leadership of Miss Lottie Ward, of the Home Economics Department. Its officers are:

President—Rosalind Friday.

Vice-president—Esther Landby.

Secretary, 1st Semester—Hazel Perry.

Secretary, 2nd Semester—Inga Folvick.

"America's Gifts to the Old World," a beautiful pageant portraying America's native products, was presented by the members of the club before the assembly February 17. The well designed costumes and pleasing interpretations of the various characters showed fine dramatic talent and training.
