

---

---

Foreword

---

WE HAVE striven in the compilation of this book not to make it a mere catalogue of events, put down in a matter of fact manner; but rather to portray our school life as we who live here know it best, and may its memories be preserved. Then when years have passed we can take down this Red River Aggie from off the shelf, open its pages and live over again our school days.

---

---