

THE RED RIVER AGGIE

COACH, POLICEMAN, MISS GORDON, MRS. GUBBINS, POLICEMAN, LADY LEICESTER, DETECTIVE BOLTON, MISS WOOFERS, DETECTIVE BENSON, DETECTIVE BRIGGS
BILL, JIMMY, SPOOFY, SOMELUNG

Three Live Ghosts

A PLAY presented under the auspices of the Seniors on February 24, 1925, by Northwest School students, coached by Miss Anne Simley, head of the English Department of the Northwest School. The time in the play is 1917, and place, London.

CAST OF CHARACTERS

Mrs. Gubbins, known as Old Sweetheart.....	Victoria Lewis, '26
Peggy Woods.....	Frances Lindahl, '25
Bolton, American detective.....	Einar Eilertson, '25
Jimmy Gubbins, stepson.....	Chester Johnson, '25
William Foster, alias Jones, an American.....	Howard Balk, '24
Spoofy (shell shock victim).....	Henry Mackowiak, '26
Rose Gordon (an American).....	Edna Peterson, '26
Somelung.....	Billie Victor
Briggs of Scotland Yard.....	Wallace Miller, '24
Benson of Scotland Yard.....	Frank Groves, '25
Lady Leicester.....	Elizabeth Jones, '25
Policemen.....	{ Clarence Ofstedahl, '25
	{ James Hanson, '24

“Your account has been standing a long time,” remarked the accountant.
“Oh, that’s too bad,” replied John Covlin, “can’t you please give it a seat?”

A student in Horticulture reports that frequently a dance hall peach turns out to be a kitchen lemon.

“I am a little stiff from basketball, ” remarked one of the boys to one of the new Freshman girls after the game the other night; “A little stiff from where?” she inquired.