

Class Advisers

IT IS with sincere regret that we see the close of our pleasant relationship draw near. As advisers for the past three years, our intimate association with the class of 1926 has resulted in a deep affection for you individually. It is our earnest wish that success be yours and that life will be the richer for having attended the Northwest School.

Sincerely,

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Dunham