

Senior Class Obituary

| Name of Deceased  | Fatal Illness         | Occupation in Paradise   | Besetting Sin in Purgatory   | Dying Words                          |
|-------------------|-----------------------|--------------------------|------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| Ella Christianson | Going home            | Studying English         | Wishing for Mentor           | "Oh, I've got to study."             |
| John Covlin       | Chewing               | Shoveling coal           | Sleeping in class            | "Hey, Mike."                         |
| Hilda Dale        | Quietness             | Taking notes             | Looking after "sis"          | "Is the tea ready?"                  |
| Gertie Dale       | Studying              | Making beds              | Staying in nights            | "Where's Hilda?"                     |
| Anne Flekke       | Raving                | Trying to vamp St. Peter | Singing "Madame Butterfly"   | "You're jealous that's all."         |
| Naomi Forder      | Slinging hash         | Washing aprons           | Waiting on the table         | "Look out, Miss Lippitt's coming!"   |
| Karroll Gandrud   | Too much exercise     | Being serious            | Quietness                    | "I don't know."                      |
| Frances Homme     | Staying out late      | Acting pious             | Squaring it with the faculty | "Meet me there."                     |
| Caroline Hruska   | Worrying over Walt    | Seeking knowledge        | Making sauerkraut            | "Nerve of some people's Children."   |
| Ben Hurner        | Quarreling with Cupid | Making-up                | Divorces                     | "Trust me, woman."                   |
| Elmer Johnson     | Judging grain         | Among the missing        | Wishing he were there        | "Oh, gosh."                          |
| Mathilda Kotrba   | Mumps                 | Teasing Alice            | Giggling                     | "Ha! Ha!"                            |
| Lester KenKnight  | Collecting            | Counting change          | Never changing               | "Price fifty cents."                 |
| Hazel Koerner     | Counting Pecks        | Crossing the track       | Rolling eyes                 | "Oh, Peck."                          |
| Rose Kozojed      | Kicking               | Trailing Doris           | Swearing                     | "Unprintable."                       |
| Mabel Larter      | Eating sauerkraut     | Looking after Harold     | Entertaining in the library  | "Why, Harold."                       |
| Lawrence Letnes   | Blushing              | Taking notes             | Bashfulness                  | "Unlock the door, Art."              |
| Victoria Lewis    | Love                  | Dancing a jig            | Worrying over Ted            | "Count yourself, you ain't so much." |
| Harry Lewis       | Stooping over         | Toasting                 | Shooting deer                | "So on & so forth."                  |
| Earl Luchau       | Over-eating           | Playing the sax          | Looking for something to eat | "Going to town?"                     |
| Violet Lundberg   | Physics               | Fussing                  | Looking in the mirror        | "Is my dress too short?"             |
| Henry Mackowiak   | Soberness             | Doing his algebra        | Living                       | "I think so."                        |
| Ray Magneson      | Arguing               | Smiling at the Angels    | Side shows                   | "Hey, my roommate."                  |