IN THE early part of October, last year's Freshman — this year's Junior Class — was re-organized with Arnold Aakre elected as president for the second time.

The class advisers are Mr. Delmar La Voi and Miss Laura Gerber, who was elected to take the place of Miss Mildred Schenck, as she is no longer a member of the Northwest School faculty.

The class motto, "Onward Ever, Backward Never," is truly significant of the class of 1927. It has always been our highest aim to make these words represent the spirit of our class and, although this year the class has slightly decreased in quantity, it has greatly increased in quality.

The members of the Junior Class take a prominent part in all school activities, such as athletics, literary societies, debates, and class contests. Although we have not always received the first place, we play the game squarely with all the loyalty we possess and as each new contest approaches we are determined to win.

As Freshmen, we carried off both prizes for the Essay Contest, Carrie Buck winning the prize of the girls and Ralph Erickson for the boys. We also came within a few points of winning the Annual Field Meet which was held last spring.

This year one of our members, Anna Hruska, won the cup for Home Project Work.

Next year, as Seniors, we hope to be as successful as this year's Seniors and more so, if possible.
