Judging Contests

AT THE Winter Shows, two inter-school judging contests were held; one in crops and the other in livestock. In the Farm Crops Contest four schools were entered: Manitoba Agricultural College, Walsh County Agricultural School of North Dakota, West Central School of Morris, and the Northwest School. The School team consisting of Elmer Johnson and Lawrence Letnes took first place, with Morris second, Walsh County third, and Manitoba fourth. George Berggren was an alternate on this team.

In the Livestock Contest teams from the same schools were also entered and in addition a team from Brookings, South Dakota. In this contest, the West Central School from Morris placed first; Walsh County, second; Northwest School, third; Brookings, fourth; and Manitoba College, fifth. The School team consisted of Randolph Ostlie, Teddy Carlson, and Ebenhard Gandrud.
