

Debate

Standing—LUCHAU, KENKNIGHT, MILLER, WALTERS, PEDERSON, MAGNESON, ERICKSON.

Sitting—RADNIECKI, MR. AVERY, SHELDREW.

THERE has been more interest in debate this year than last. The regular classes have been larger; in fact, they have been so crowded that the freshman class was placed in charge of Mr. McCall, relieving Mr. Avery of part of the work.

The literary societies have shown the usual interest; they are ideal organizations for putting into practice the things learned in the debate classroom. There is nothing on the society programs that has more drawing power than snappy debates.

The question for inter-school debate — Resolved that the Congress shall have power to limit, regulate, and prohibit the labor of persons under eighteen years of age — was also used for the inter-society debate. This contest resulted in a clean cut and well-deserved victory for the Pioneer Society with Lincoln second and Agrarian third.

The school team that is to debate Morris on February 27 met the Crookston High School affirmative team in a practice bout in the High School auditorium on February 16. It was a good thing for the Aggies as it gave them a chance to check up on their weak spots.

The result of the inter-school debate in which the Aggie affirmative team debates Fargo at Crookston and the negative team meets the West Central team at Morris is unknown at this date. Here's hoping for a 100 per cent victory.
