

BEFORE THE DAYS OF BOBBED HAIR

Our Farmers' Week and Red River Valley Winter Shows have been joyful, inspirational, instructive events — seasons of relaxation and good-fellowship, seasons of mutual helpfulness and comradeship.

The Northwest School and Station has won a secure place among the state's educational institutions. The alumni of the institution now number over 700. The writer's proudest moment comes when he recalls that he has had the wonderful privilege of working in this "School of Service" and of presenting, in behalf of the Regents of the University of Minnesota, diplomas
