

SENIOR SNEEZE

BREVITIES

Miss Rupert is taking great interest in her English classes. She has been holding nightly sessions for the last few nights in her room at Robertson Hall where her student Jack has been getting special instructions because he has been below grade.

Mabel Larter and Harold Walters have had the experience of getting their laundry mixed. This looks serious.

Edna received a Valentine and, when asked who it was from, she said the other fellow.

Two of the A. C. boys are taking a course in hair dressing. Phone 502.

The glass in the door of the English room is broken, as a result of Margaret Woods sticking her head through it. Mr. Avery suggested using it as a hot dog stand during vacant periods.

Robert Davids, noted as a singer, was present at Home Coming accompanied by Anna Hoper of Bagley.

A free comedy was given at Robertson Hall last evening by Nicholson & Company. A large attendance left when it began.

Gladys Huartson makes a hit. Violet is worried about her brother Garwin.

Violet Lundberg in Poultry Class Saturday morning—"Will we have a test tomorrow?"
Mr. Pilkey—"Yes in Bible Class."

Mr. McCall—Different trees give us different impressions. What impression does a birch tree give you?

Miss Gurley—We will now sing that old familiar ballad entitled "A sock on the foot is worth two in the eye."

Miss Bede says: to make biscuits light, immerse them in gasoline and ignite before serving.
To test freshness of eggs, drop on a hard floor.
To remove stains from clothing, use scissors.
To entertain visitors, feed them.

Harold Walters—"Hey there, don't spit on the floor."

Howe—"S'matter? Floor Leak?"

Clarence Nelson—"I want the life of Julius Caesar."

Miss Simley—"I'm sorry, but Brutus beat you to it."

Mr. Milligan—"What's the height of your ambition?"

Mr. La Voi—"Oh, she comes about to my shoulders."

"What is your idea of the tightest man in College?"

"The guy who won't take a shower because they soak you too much."

Edna—"How did you get that wonderful wavy hair Violet?"

Violet—"Turning somer-saults on a corrugated roof in my youth m'dear."

Mabel L.—"Amber you're a dumbbell."

Amber—"Well, Mabel, dumb-bells go in pairs."

When you tell a man something it goes in one ear and out the other; When you tell a woman something, it goes in both ears and comes out of her mouth.

An absent minded professor who thought he'd left his watch at home took it out to see if he had time to go back and get it.

Miss Sheldon—"Some terrible things can be caught from kissing."

Skat—"That's the truth, you ought to see the poor fish my sister caught that way."

Garwin to Gladys—"I was discharged from the place I stayed last night."

Gladys—"What for?"

Garwin—"Doing well."

Gladys—"Where were you?"

Garwin—"In the hospital."
