

Alumni News

Miss Mildred Schenck, for four years instructor of Home Economics, was elected with Mr. LaVoi as adviser of the class of '27. She left that spring to accept a position in the Extension Department, University of Minnesota. During her years of service here, she has endeared herself to the students and faculty of the Northwest School. Although no longer connected with the institution, her interest in the school and especially the Senior Class has not diminished.

Northwest School Graduates Seek Higher Education

The following are the Northwest School graduates who are attending schools of higher learning and who are making a creditable showing. At the University of Minnesota; Einar Aakre '23, Ag. College; James Hanson '25, Engineering College, member Minnesota football squad; Arnie Solum '25, S. L. and A. College; Wallace Miller '25, Ag. College, member University wrestling team; Raymond Hogenson '25, Ag. College; Elmer Miller '26, Ag. College; Richard Aakre '26, Ag. College; Alice Landro '26, Home Economics; Iver Johnson '24, Ag. College, winner of one of the three awards given by the University for outstanding honors in scholarship; Albert Kopecky '24, Ag. College. At Carleton College; Lester Ken Knight '26, participant in the Freshmen-Sophomore oratorical contest; Helen Gibbons '25, took part of Portia, in the play "Merchant of Venice." At Bemidji Teachers College; Agnes Forsness '25, and Walter Anderson '23.

Some Alumni Are Making Good Records

Herman Skyberg '16, Fisher, President of Polk Co. Farm Bureau; Dr. Harry Hedin '11, Crookston, President Alumni Association, State Veterinarian; Paul Englestad '16, Thief River Falls, President Red River Valley Guernsey Breeders Association; Thorval Tunhiem '16, Editorial Staff, Pasadena Sun, Pasadena, Calif.; Martinus Stenseth '16, Minneapolis, Reserve Officer U. S. Aviation; Ole Flaatt '16, East Grand Forks, largest grower of certified potatoes in the valley; Carl Narveson '20, Principal Borup High School; Harold Grande '16, Portland Oregon, artist.

In Memoriam

Mary Margaret Woods

Born December 23, 1908 Died February 18, 1927

"God fulfills Himself in many ways"