FOLLOWING an intermission of two weeks, our athletic interests turned to basketball. The prospects for a winning team were not good due to the fact that most of the team were picked from a squad of new and inexperienced players, only one letterman being on hand for the first game.

Two weeks of strenuous practice put the team in condition for the first game, which was played with Stephen on our floor. The result was a victory for the Aggies. A return game was played a week later on Stephen's floor in which they took revenge by beating our team by one point. These were the only games played before the holidays.

Basketball was resumed again with renewed interest at the start of the winter term. Prevailing sickness among several of the first team men was a big obstacle in the way of keeping the team in first class condition during the season. Erling Gorden, regular forward before Christmas, did not return to school because of this. Sickness was partly the reason why we lost, by a narrow margin, to Thief River Falls on their home floor.

In one of the most exciting games ever played on the home floor, the Aggies beat the strong Fertile team, tournament winners of district two. When the time was up, the score was a tie, and an overtime period in which Skatvold and Gandrud both scored field goals ended the game in favor of the Aggies.

The game at Ada, where our team played the fast Ada squad, turned out a decided victory for our opponents. The Aggies were unable to check Ada's repeated scoring. They made up for this defeat a week later by defeating Bemidji Teachers, on
