

"APPLESAUCE"

*Your dress is neat,
Your manners sweet,
Your cooking the Best Ever;
If you'll be mine
Housewife divine,
I'll pay your bills forever! !*

WE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW

Why Carl W. likes to visit the practice house? Why Elmer H. is always grooming his hair? When the girls will quit wearing spit curls? When Andy is going to drive on schedule? Why Miss Warne doesn't like peppermint candy and why she does like to walk to town? How Esther Viker caught Olaf S.? When Ostlie will learn to tell a vacuum cleaner from a malted milk machine? How Edythe Martinson hooks the new Freshmen? Why it was so nice for Mr. Dunham to have his Ford stolen? How Suchomel became such a good pianist? Why Orlando Rudser had a permanent wave put in? What the Aggie Board would have done without its stenographers?

To C. G. S.

Once I was a democrat,
And thought it lots of fun
But changed like a chameleon
When you set out to "run."
And now you are a Congressman
And I a woman true,
No matter what your policies
I'll always be for YOU!

—A Suffragette.

Notice: I have such a perfect character and have behaved so well that I defy any Senior to find anything about me worth putting in the annual. Miss Polski.

Notice: We haven't been able to find out whether Miss Polski is naturally that way or whether she is just too clever for us, but we DO KNOW that she is hard to wake up in the morning!

—The Editor.

THE JOY OF BEING EDITOR

Gettin' out this book was not a picnic. If we print jokes, people say we are silly; if we don't they say we are too serious. If we clip things from other books we are too lazy to write them ourselves; if we don't, we are stuck on our own stuff. If we stick close to the job all day, we ought to be out hunting up news. If we do get out and try to hustle, we ought to be on the job in the office.

If we don't print contributions, we don't appreciate true genius, and if we do print them, they say the book is filled with junk. If we make a change in the other fellow's write-up, we are too critical; if we don't we are asleep.

Now like as not some one will say we swiped this from some other book.

WE DID! ! !

E. Viker: "The word mule is just Male spelled wrong."

O. Stenborg: "But the Latin dictionary says that woman is "mulier."
