

The Red River Aggie

The Social Whirl

THE SELVIG FAREWELL BANQUET

An impressive event of the school year occurred March 20, 1927, when the unveiling exercises of the 1926 class memorial were held in the Dining Hall. An oil portrait of Mr. C. G. Selvig, retiring superintendent, was presented to the school in behalf of the class of '26 by Mr. R. S. Dunham, adviser. The Misses Naomi Forder and Doris Olson drew curtains that revealed the likeness of the superintendent who had so faithfully served the Northwest School for sixteen years.

THANKSGIVING DAY

In memory of the first Thanksgiving Day, the students of this school gathered at the Dining Hall to give thanks. A prize was awarded for the best decorated table, and after a turkey dinner, we enjoyed a program given at the auditorium. In the evening the students and guests were entertained either at the dance or at the party.

THE GET-TOGETHER DINNER

Community singing, class toasts given by Carl Widseth, '27, Elida Erickson '28, Lloyd Weaver '29, and Johanna Caudle '30, with Mr. Rutt representing the faculty, giving of awards and presentation of a sweater, donated by Ruettel Clothing Co., to Carl Widseth who was selected as the outstanding student in the 1927 football squad, provided the entertainment at the annual Christmas dinner. Santa paused to leave a few gifts for his good children. Confer's cough medicine and Sharp's alarm clock were a few odd remembrances.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The annual Junior-Senior Banquet was held Monday evening, March the fifth. The dining hall and the tables were decorated in lavender and yellow, the Junior colors. "Campus Gardens" was the toast theme.

Following the dinner, the Juniors entertained their guests at a party in the gymnasium. The place was beautified with Junior and Senior class colors, and fun was given full reign for a couple of hours.