Spears — "I could waltz to Heaven with you."

Peaches — "Can you reverse?"

Mr. Larson explaining problem in Algebra — "Now pay attention to the board while I go through it."

Miss Polski — "Do you think girls could ever learn to play football?"

Mr. LaVoi — "Possibly if they could be made to quit tackling around the neck."

Edyth M. — "What is your favorite hymn?"

Ruth S. — "The one Miss Bede chased out of Robertson last night."

Mr. Rutt — "What, you flunked that course again?"

M. Larson — "What do you expect? They gave me the very same exam."

IN THE GOOD OLD SUMMERTIME

Glenn S. — "Is my tire flat?"

Julia — "Oh, it's a little flat on the bottom, but the rest is all right."

Esther Blair — "If there's anything that makes me mad, is to spend 75c for a marcel and then look worse than a last year's birds nest."

Voice over phone — "Are you in the market for dressed poultry today?"

Mr. Pilkey — "Gee, that reminds me, I'm going to kill myself this week."

Miss Simonson in home nursing — "Are late hours good for one?"

Esther Lundin — "No, but they are fine for two."

Mr. Dunham in Soil Fertility class — "Peat soil is not very good farm land."

Harold Norseth — "Oh, I don't know."

Mr. Dunham — "I know it; that's why I told you."

Clara in Home Management Class — "How do you make hash?"

Ethel Harris — "It isn't made, it's accumulated."
