

In presenting this Annual it is our aim to recall in times to come the happy days of our school life and to perpetuate within the covers of the "Red River Aggie" the persevering spirit of the Northwest School during the year 1928-1929.

Foreword