

Eye Opener

October 1-7;

Influx of freshmen—greener than grass; Two new faculty members—still greener; Girls frolic while boys pow-wow, apples for all, music in the air; Football, Red Lake Falls, O—Aggies, 13; Y. M. and Y. W. Reception, Robertson Hall popular; First chance for "The Show-Off."

October 8-15;

Everybody out for the first dance and party—wonder why?; Students see Aggies win from East Grand Forks, 12-0; How go and how come? Some lost but returned without reward offered. Outdoor festival—Oh! how cold. Seniors win? ? ? ? No, freshmen.

October 16-22;

Grand rush for the post office—much mail, invitations to stay home from dance and party issued. Model High here, Aggies win—Berggren goes to sleep at big show. Natalie Woolson not yet discovered—never again.

October 23-29;

Home coming—campus gay with maroon and gold. Morris our guests. Alumni on side lines so Aggies treat. Nuf sed! Homecoming Dance. Lawrence Peterson opens barber shop in Robertson Hall—too much business—Mrs. Geer fore-closes.

October 30-November 4;

Home Project Show and Parents' Day—much company—rooms cleaned—mothers proud. Selma Waldal wins sweepstakes—boy? Mayville takes the football game. Hallowe'en party—more sweep-stakes—Miss Polski and Bob Gleason. Home management girls celebrate—Peanut Alley suffers.

November 5-11;

Harry gets hurt on "Football field." Covlin takes Miss Gerber's sailors for joy ride in his.....? ? ? ? ? Rolls Royce? ? ? ? ? Tork goes to see "Three Wise Fools." Covlin eats 25 waffles at practice house? ? ? ? ? Armistice Day exercises.

November 12-18;

First debate meeting—Mr. Avery pleased—Students studying Central America. Grades come out—everybody happy? ? ? ? ? Dakota Play-makers give "Arabian Nights."

November 19-26;

Everybody warbling—song practice on. Keen competition for directorships—Torgerson, Ryden, Degerncss, and Hendrickson swing batons. Interclass football scraps—much pep—Kippe deserts Freshmen—Advanced win.