

Here and There

Kiehle Building:

Auditorium—A good place for Romeos and Juliets. The balcony is especially popular.

Superintendent's Office—Where you get a good bawling out.

Library—A place for "A" students only.

Accountant's Office—Where you account for your breakages.

Gym Lockers—Post mortems after games.

Robertson Hall:

A "spooning" place on Sunday evenings. Good night, boys, Hahahaha.

Hospital:

A resting place for the weary.

Home Economics Building:

Free party joint. No preceptresses.

Stephens Hall:

Where the freshmen wildcats are tamed.

Dining Hall:

A good "grub" joint.

Hill Building:

Where the "below grade" slips are earned.

Owen Hall:

The place where the clean get greasy.

Senior Hall:

A dignified ? ? ? ? ? looking group of males.

Monument:

Observatory for astronomy students.
