

February 4-11;

Winter shows. Dean Coffey talks as does President Coffman. Northwest school in hurry. Game and alumni dance. All school party and dance.

February 12-19;

Aggies celebrate Abe's birthday with books open. Valentines????? Basket-ball game with Park Region, Aggies win. Class parties—Gleason's hamburgers hit the right spot. Seniors cast the sleigh ride in the river and park at Home Ec. Juniors stage a hard time party—feel natural. Freshmen and Advanced join the agony song. Norma Shawstad gets haircut.

February 20-27;

Manley Larson gets to Algebra Class on time. Isabelle and Fisher in Library instead of museum. Natalie fears that hypnotizing will harm Ruth Stenborg's heart. Aggies beat Park River, 19-16. Fosston taken into camp, 13-6. Hazel leads yell, "What's the matter with Cordes???" Open house Senior Hall and Dining Hall. Much whoopeeee, also all day suckers and wafers and punch.

February 28-March 8;

Arlene Hill falls when climbing a snow bank—as laughter increases the snowbank decreases. Gleason has sale on hot dogs—Seniors all in line. Sanna and Chester go to church.

March 9-16;

Inter-school debate—Chet and Sanna on the affirmative side, not in debate but in thoughts. Junior-Senior banquet—Seniors come to pay their last respects to the affair. Senior day takes campus by surprise—they think of April Fool Day. Open house at Robertson—boys pick out best housekeepers.

March 17-24;

Williamine decides to work her Algebra when Gabriel blows his horn. Miss Lippitt does not ask girls to write theme for final Home Management class. Declamatory contests. Exams coming—state orders extra supply of midnight oil. Snow all gone—monument popular.

March 25-28;

Baccalaureate services—finals in Declamatory contests—Mr. Dowell's reception to Seniors. Concert recital, Music Department—Senior Class exercises—Commencement. Everybody home. Good-bye and good-luck. Till we meet again.