

Just a Little Nonsense:

- Lessons—A brain stimulator which keeps one acquainted with the room.
 Studies—Something invented by teachers to shorten the lives of students.
 Campus—A good time to get your studies.
 Below Grade Slips—Notice to stay away from dances and parties.
 Teacher—An unnecessary decoration in any educational institution.
 Home—A place where you get something to eat for nothing.
 Thermometer—Something that goes up when you want it to go down and down when you want it to go up.
 Flapper—A flippant flighty forward facetious faker, interested primarily in boys, and vice versa.
 Davenport—A most used article of furniture in a flapper's home.
 Textbook—A detested decorative article quite apt to be found in a schoolroom—very useful for starting fires.
 Freshmen—A harmless but often pestiferous botanical specimen. About as hospitably received in the Northwest School as a test. Very often mistaken for some form of vegetation because of "greenness."

CAN YOU PICTURE:

- Lauritz Mikkelson with black hair.
 Manley Larson on time for class.
 Alice Naplin not talking.
 Art Hendrickson not speaking to the faculty.
 Lloyd Weaver with straight hair.
 Alma Jacobson without a smile.
 Isabelle without Roy.
 Chester without Sanna.
 Evelyn Bierbaum with long hair.
 Oscar Wedul studying.
 Olga Johnson without Selma Waldal.
 Clinton Nelson without some "Noyes."
 Miss Thompson standing still.
 Mr. LaVoi on time for breakfast.
 Miss Simonson not enjoying a play.
 Estelle not writing poetry.
 Robertson Hall with an empty parlor.
 Sunday night without "Good night, boys."
 Mr. Mlinar, six feet two inches.
 Mr. Pilkey studying aviation.
 Bob Gleason not frying hamburgers.
 Isabelle Letnes with a long skirt.
 Miss Bede without her laugh.
 Evelyn Bain skating without a chair.
 Mr. Anderson IN Senior Hall.
 Raymond Schlaudraff in Robertson.
 Miss Gerber without a beau.