

Mr. Mlinar: "Who can name some important thing we now have that we did not have one hundred years ago?"

Harry Confer: "Me."

Coach LaVoi: "Ryden, did you take a shower to-day?"

Ryden: "No, is there one missing?"

Prof. Anderson: "Well, how did your examination turn out?"

Prof. Mlinar: "A complete success; everybody failed."

Confer: "What's your new girl's name?"

Trandem: "Marcelle."

Confer: "Think she'll be permanent?"

Miss Simley: "I understand Manley Larson has gone home."

Miss Bede: "What for?"

Miss Simley: "For a few days."

Mr. Pilkey: "Mr. Gleason, what is a nutrient?"

Mr. Gleason: "An atom of digestion."

Lowell Ryden: "Mr. Pilkey, I have to go to the nurse's place to be tested. May I be excused?"

Miss Warne (trying out Mack's violin in dining hall): "If you'll wait just a few minutes while I send for my beau?????????"

Sanna H: "I passed Caesar to-day."

Chester T: "How fast was he going?"

Alma Krogstad: "Mrs. Pilkey certainly worships her husband, doesn't she?"

Agnes Johnson: "Yes, she places burnt offering before him twice a day."

Miss Simley in her assignment for the next day's English lesson gave the following words, defeat, deduct, and detail to be used in sentences. One of the students spoke up and asked, "Is it all right if we use them all in one sentence?" Upon correcting the papers the following day Miss Simley found the following sentence: "De feet of de duck goes over de fence before de tail!"

Sophie Hoper: "What is our lesson in Home Management for to-morrow?"

Williamine: "From large intestines to end of the chapter."

Evelyn Bierbaum: "I've been told I'm very pretty."

Irvin Flynn: "Can't you take a joke?"

Harvey Johnson thinks he can sing, but he couldn't carry a tune if it had a handle.

All that stands between some A. C. students and the top of the ladder is the ladder.

If a man from Poland is a Pole, is a man from Holland a Hole? (exchange)

There are many interesting subjects being brought up in Poultry class:

Bob Gleason would like to know why a chicken doesn't lay two eggs per day.

John Covlin is sure that neither the act of catching or eating fish goes to make brain food.

Winton Knutson would like to know why a Frenchman eats pea-soup, a Swede, Lutefisk; a Scotchman, mush; and Miss Gerber, sauerkraut.

The Seniors were born for great things,
The Juniors were born for small,
But nobody has yet found the reason,
Why the Freshmen were born at all.

"Oh, sir," she said, "I must not tell my age. They say women and music should never be dated."

A cat has nine lives, so they say,
And that indeed is right
But you never hear about the frog
And he croaks every night.

Miss Bede: "Have you had your iron today?"

Freshmen: "Yes, we had beeksteak for dinner."

Alice Naplin: "Were you ever lonesome at school?"

Hazel Stephenson: "My gosh, yes, I was so lonesome I used to kiss myself good-night."
