

Farewell

As we conclude the work on our annual we find that there are many to whom we are deeply indebted. We wish to extend our sincere thanks to Mr. A. M. Pilkey for his many kind suggestions and his assistance in connection with our advertising; to Mr. Arthur Peterson for his work in the advertising campaign; to Miss Anne Simley for her assistance in the reading of proofs; to Miss Laura Gerber for her assistance in connection with the art work; to Mr. Delmer H. LaVoi for his athletic contributions. In the makeup of our annual we are deeply indebted to Mr. C. J. Brown of the Buckbee Mears Company for his valuable help in planning the book; to the Buckbee-Mears Company for the excellent engravings and art work; to Mr. W. H. Bixby of the McGill-Warner Company for the suggestions in connection with the printing; and to Mr. John E. Benson, photographer of Crookston, for his fine photographic work.

The splendid co-operation of the Senior Class and the Aggie Board has made the work on the Aggie a joy and a pleasure and it is with regret that we close.

—THE EDITORS