

The Diary of Hiram Stepfast, Esq.—Cont.

Dec. 18—Guess that the faculty had quite a hot time last nite. Any way they were awful tired this morning. We had a big supper at the dinning hall. Had coffee for supper. I heard thier was going to be toast for supper but thier wasnt, a lot of folks talked. Gee I wish ma could heard Wighte.

Dec. 19—Whoopee Im going to go home. I have my trunk all packed. Gee but its going to be swell to get home again. Just wate till Ma and Pa see how educated I got. The kids are saying that the bus is coming so I guess I'll have to go.

(NOTE—And here ends this faithful diary. No doubt Hiriam overlooked his diary in his hasty departure. When cleaning up the dormitory during vacation the diary was found. No doubt in years to come the true value will be more and more appreciated.—The Editors.)

1931—Day by Day

Jan. 5—Registration Day. Campus is again green.

Jan. 6—Every one enjoys social hour.

Jan. 9—Mr. W. F. Munche, Game Warden, Crookston, speaks at Assembly. Dance and party.

Jan. 11—Rev. Ed. E. Domke speaks at Y. W. & Y. M. meeting.

Jan. 12—Basketball game with U. of N. D. freshmen.

Jan. 17—Advanced-Junior basketball game. Park Region Luther College—Fergus Falls vs. Aggies here.

Jan. 18—Mr. E. C. Nordrom, Crookston High School, speaks at Y. W. & Y. M. Open house for down town people to view new building and improvements. Juvenile band concert in auditorium.

Jan. 20—Rev. F. J. Hibbard, Crookston, speaks at assembly.

Jan. 24—Dakota Play-makers: "Importance of Being Earnest."

Jan. 25—Student Program for Y. W. & Y. M.

Jan. 26—Freshmen vs. Seniors basketball game.

Jan. 27—"China", a talk by Professor Paul R. Johnson.

Jan. 31—Basketball game: Park River, N. D., vs. Aggies, here.

Feb. 1—Rev. C. G. Hohn, Crookston, Y. W. & Y. M.

Feb. 2—Basketball game, Juniors vs. Seniors. Debate, Warren High School vs. Aggies, here.

Feb. 3—Debate, Warren High School vs. Aggies, at Warren. Mr. Ocock takes the debaters to Warren jail on sightseeing trip of the village.

Feb. 6—Basketball game, Juniors vs. Freshman. Basketball game, Grand Rapids vs. Crookston Aggie, here. Class parties—"A good time had by all."

Feb. 8—Sunday. Everyone resting up for Winter Shows.

Feb. 9—Red River Valley Winter Shows begin. The Honorable Lorado Taft speaks at Armory.

Feb. 10—Whoopee! no classes; visit R. R. V. W. Shows.

Feb. 11—Classes all morning; visit R. R. V. W. Shows.

Feb. 12—Many enjoy hearing Col. Raymond Robbins. We go to press—first 32 pages.

Feb. 13—Northwest Singers at Winter Shows. Dr. Hedger's last address, and many students do new exercises.

Feb. 14—Shows all over. Mid-term tests.

Feb. 15—Members of Dramatic class presents "The Valiant."

Feb. 16—Debate: Crookston High School vs. Aggies, here. No decision.

Feb. 19—Basketball game: Bemidji Teachers' College at Bemidji. Students give them a send-off—at Assembly.

Feb. 21—Basketball game with Saint Paul vs. Aggies, at Saint Paul. We won! Apollo Male Trio.

Feb. 23—We go to press. All the way! Much rejoicing.

Feb. 23-28—Senior girls sewing on class play costumes.

Feb. 28—Basketball game with Morris Aggies vs. Crookston Aggies, there.

March 2-3—Cast of 33 Senior Aggies produce "Taming of the Shrew."

Mar. 4—Seniors and faculty members rest.

Mar. 9—Junior-Senior Banquet.

Mar. 10-14—Operetta practice. Hard!

Mar. 16—"Sunbonnet Girl." Music hath charms.

Mar. 19—Senior Day. Aggies out.

Mar. 21—Beginning of spring, and exams.

Mar. 22—Baccalaureate.

Mar. 23—Declam. "Je call me sheef."

Mar. 24—We go to Senior reception.

Mar. 25—Music recital.

Mar. 26—To be or not to be.

Mar. 27—"Goodbye, girls—I'm through."