TO THOSE OF YOU WHO HAVE ENJOYED THE AGGIE

We would like to remind you that the publication of this book has been made possible to a large extent through the generosity of the Merchants of Crookston, whose names appear on the foregoing list. We urge that every student and friend of the school give them all the patronage possible in return for their loyal support.

ADVISERS

I wish I were on yonder hill,
A baskin' in the sun,
With all the work I got to do,
Done.

I wish I were upon the sea,
A sailin' in a boat,
With all the things I got to write,
Wrote.

I wish I were beneath a tree,
A restin' in the shade,
With all the bills I got to pay,
Paid.
