Junior Class

When we, the Class of 1932, arrived on the campus of the Northwest School on October 6, 1929, there was in our hearts the deep desire to be worthy of our parents' sacrifices, our class and our school.

When our class was organized on October fifteenth, the enrollment was one hundred and twenty-four, the largest freshman class that had been enrolled at the Northwest School. We were fortunate in securing Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Dowell as our class advisers.

As an indication of our potential possibilities in athletics we were second in the outdoor festival and a very close second in the inter-class basketball contest.

Our class motto is, "Success comes to those who hustle wisely."

The members of the Junior Class have taken a prominent part in all school activities such as athletics, literary societies, debates, choruses, judging contests, and other inter-class events.

When we return as Seniors next year this resolution will be in our hearts, "Let us make this class the best Senior Class that has ever attended the Northwest School of Agriculture." In doing this let us keep in mind the words of Longfellow:

"The heights by great men reached and kept
 Were not attained by sudden flight,
 But they, while their companions slept,
 Were toiling upward in the night."
