

The Senior Alphabet

A is for Arthur who works long and hard,
B of course, is for Rishton Bedard—
C is for Clarence, called "Casey" for fun—
D is for Dorothy, Donley or Don.
E stands for Erickson, this class has two,
F for the Filipi's, two of them, too.
G is for Glass, Grove, Genung, or Grace Mary,
H is for Hendrickson, Hoff, Hill or Harry.
I is for Ingvald, Ingolf and such,
J is for Our Johns, those babies know much.
K stands for Kroulik, Karlen, and Ken Knight,
L stands for Lundin, don't think she's not right.
M stands for Maattala, and also McCall.
N is Norneses, Noyses and all.
O is for Ole, we had to have one,
P is for Pat, who's out after fun.
Q is for questions, our pet peeve in school,
R stands for Radway, who's far from a fool.
S count the S's, we have just eleven,
T is for Thoreson, she's worth at least seven.
U for University, also for us,
V is for Valor, laugh she just must.
W is Weckwerth, Wolden or Wood,
X is for Algebra, we'd ditch if we could.
Y is for Yergens, the last in the line,
Z Whoopee! we finished the rhyme!
