

Northwest School Defeats Morris 19-0

LOCALS PULL BIG SURPRISE WITH VICTORY

Christgau's Team Plays Superb Ball After Not Being Given Chance to Win

The Northwest School Aggies took the game locked by its rusty hands Saturday afternoon and after spilling its contents to the four corners of the field, met the Morris A. C. football team and turned back the nearby raptors, 19 to 0.

The local boys were not even conceded an outside chance to win. Doubtless for the school and those who returned to their homes for the homecoming were hoping that the school would hold the Morris team to within bounds, but even the most optimistic were not prepared for the results that the visitors received.

Rever in the history of the Northwest school has its football team showed the fight and spirit that rebuked its previous record. Led by Anderson, the Morris team of the game was a play homesteading this year with the irrepressible look of building an almost entirely new team out of green material, and the Morris team has an abundance of veterans who had not lost a before meeting the Crookston Saturday, and were once again running rough shod boys.

Christgau's with a new start in the first quarter. The Northwest school started a new team of the Northwest school. The Morris team had even received a ball. A forward for the extra point.

Morris tightened its hold the local Aggies until the end of the game.
