

Senior Alphabet

A is for Abbott, our Editor-in-Chief,
B is for Brekke, whose crushes are brief,
C is for Coulter, an athletic man,
D is for Dorseth, so spic and so span,
E is for Eggen, a homemaker true,
F is for Frances of whom we have two,
G is for Gorden, a budding crops judge,
H is for Hanson, whom Kiser can't budge.
I is for Irene, quiet and fair,
J is for Johnson, the cutter of hair,
K is for Kramer, a basketball man,
L is for Lunsetter, a typist who can.
M is for Mandt, our pet tenor voice,
N is for Nelson, a kicker by choice,
O is for Orpha, who helps with all things,
P is for Phil, whose football fame rings.
Q is for Quiet all preceptors crave,
R is for Reynold, who knows when to behave,
S is for six of our Seniors with fame,
T is for Tonsfeldt, a sweet lass who came.
U is for Urbaniak, loyal to her class,
V is for Volker, who is sure to pass,
W is for Widseth, strong, loyal and true,
X is for all the X-ams we lived through.
Y is for h written upside down,
Z is for Zeal in which all Seniors abound.